Mission Statement: Inspiring and equipping today's parents, families, and communities to raise capable, caring, contributing children. Every Child Succeeds: a voluntary home-visitation program for at-risk mothers in Clermont and Hamilton counties. Beech Acres Family Support Workers (FSW) begin working with the families prior to the child's birth and partner with the family up to the age of 3. The program offers parenting and child development information and assists in strengthening parenting skills. The FSW also connects the mother and family to community resources as needed. Group, Education & Mediation Services: a variety of services and supports to parents, families and schools to meet the needs of children, teenagers, families, single parents, stepfamilies, and others. Community-based throughout the Greater Cincinnati area.
